

Welcome to Cove Federal Credit Union
AND
Congratulations on your new position

Now that you've joined the Diocese we'd like you to join Cove!

The Diocese of Covington has a partnership with Cove FCU which enables you to become a Member at no cost. Benefits include a checking account with no minimum balance or minimum monthly deposit required. Access to over 42,000 surcharge free ATMs nationwide, mobile banking, bill pay, and remote check deposit.

We help our Members better financially care for their family and their future. We understand that it is more than money—it's buying your first car, helping pay for your child's first year of college, bringing home the newest member of the family to your dream home. Whatever your financial goal, Cove Federal Credit Union can help you take care of it.

Is there a financial goal you've been thinking about? Have you gone through a "life happens event" and need a partner to help you get back up on your financial feet? Cove is here for you.

To become a member use the Cove link on the Diocese's website or go to www.covefcu.com. If you'd like to speak directly with someone about financial goals and challenges, please call us at 859-292-9000.

Welcome to Cove Federal Credit Union!
