*DIOCESE OF COVINGTON
1125 MADISON AVENUE
COVINGTON, KENTUCKY 41011-3115*

Sessions are all scheduled for Tuesday evenings, 7:00—9:00pm. Each workshop will take three evenings and will cover one book of the Bible. The study will begin with First Kings and hopefully over time, with enough interest, continue through the Book of Revelation. Ten books of the Bible will be presented in the years 2019-2020. The cost to participate in each book of the Bible is $35.00.

All of the courses will be held at the Diocese of Covington, Curia Office Building, Bishop Howard Memorial Auditorium.

SCRIPTURE STUDIES

Ten individual workshops will be offered at the Curia Office Building by Father Timothy P. Schehr. He is a Biblical Professor at the Athenaeum of Ohio, Mt. St. Mary Seminary of the West. He has B.A., M.Div., and M.A. from Athenaeum of Ohio. He also has Ph.D. from Hebrew Union College. This will provide Young Adult & Adult learners in the Diocese with a more in-depth understanding of specific books of the Bible in 2019-2020. This is a wonderful occasion for the people of the Diocese to learn and know more about their Catholic Bible.

1 KINGS

Solomon's reign begins with the promise of many good things to come. But then the kingdom begins to weaken and even split apart. Fortunately God sends some great prophets to help steer things in the right direction.

CHRONICLES, MACCABEES & EZRA

- First Chronicles offers a second look at David and his kingdom. In this book David realizes his true spiritual potential. He becomes a real model of faith. He is committed to the building of a temple in Jerusalem and provides Solomon with a lot of good advice.

  - In second Chronicles David's kingdom continues to thrive. Some good kings help the people keep God in the center of their lives. A hard lesson comes with the exile. But still there is hope. A foreign king has plans for restoration.

  - Ezra wants to rebuild the nation. He seeks to revive the spiritual life of the people by offering powerful prayers to God.
1. Tuesday, March 3, 2020, 7:00 p.m.
  2. Tuesday, March 10, 2020, 7:00 p.m.
  3. Tuesday, March 17, 2020, 7:00 p.m.

Nehemiah, Judith & Esther

- Nehemiah wants to rebuild the nation. He does his best to rebuild the city of Jerusalem and its walls.

  - Judith of great faith invites her people to sing a new song to the Lord. With her leading the way they set aside their fears and turn to God for security. The greatest army in the world is no match for humble service to God.

  - Through the power of prayer this Esther saves her people from ruin. The schemes of powerful men are no match for this humble queen's devotion to God. When things look hopeless she turns to the Lord and finds deliverance.
