

2016-2017 ACUE Honor Roll

The Alliance for
Catholic Urban Education

Honors Our Wonderful Leadership Donors and Volunteers

July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017

My dear friends in Christ:

Welcome to the 2016-2017 ACUE Annual Report. The Annual Report lists all donors who joined me in contributing to the ACUE Fund from July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Through the generosity of those listed in this publication, the vital ACUE ministry thrives.

Gifts to ACUE make a significant difference in the quality of life for our urban areas and positively impact the entire region. Urban children and families benefit from this support in the form of six quality Catholic grade schools located within their communities that offer an important educational alternative to their neighborhood public schools. The ACUE schools provide a strong, values-based foundation upon which students can build the rest of their lives.

Further, through gifts of tuition assistance, ACUE donors are a blessing to families that struggle to provide a Catholic education for their children. It is humbling to think of the difference our donors make in the lives of our students, especially those for whom the ACUE schools are a bridge out of poverty.

I am deeply grateful to our ACUE donors for their thoughtful support. They are a grace in my life. I thank them and am honored to pray for their intentions.

Yours devotedly in the Lord,

Mission Statement

The Urban Schools are a vital mission of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Covington. These Schools provide an exemplary Christ-centered moral and academic education to the young and provide a foundation that contributes to present and future solidarity and quality of life in the urban areas of Northern Kentucky.

The ACUE Parishes

The thirteen urban parishes of the Diocese comprise the Covington Deanery. These parishes are also known as ACUE parishes. Whether or not they host an ACUE school on their property, the ACUE parishes each provide 30% of their weekly collections toward the operation of the six diocesan grade schools of the Deanery. This support from our urban parishes for our ACUE schools amounted to approximately $770,000 during the 2016-2017 academic year. Until recent years, the urban parish support of our schools was as high as 40% of their weekly collection. Fortunately, the generosity of donors to the annual ACUE Fund has been instrumental in reducing this figure to a more manageable level. It is important to mention that our host parishes must also maintain their ACUE school buildings and grounds as they are parish assets and not owned by ACUE.

ACUE is sincerely appreciative of the blessings each parish provides to our students. Further reduction in parish financial participation continues as an ongoing goal of the ACUE Fund.

2016 Summer Mission Collection

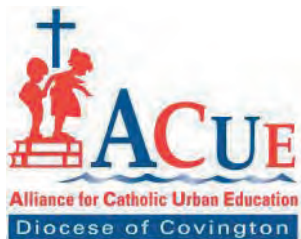

Through the annual Diocesan Summer Mission Collection, all of our diocesan parishes contribute to the ministry of Catholic urban elementary education. In doing so, they join our urban parishes in support of this important apostolate of our local Church.

Our thanks to those who selflessly volunteered their summer weekends to speak at parishes on ACUE's behalf and to the parishes across the Diocese for their wonderful support. We were honored to work in conjunction with Mike Murray and his staff from the diocesan stewardship office in the implementation of the collection. We thank them as well for their time and attention.

Dear Friends:

With this publication, ACUE celebrates your generosity, your dedication to urban Catholic education and your compassionate concern for the children and families we serve. I join ACUE in thanking each of our donors. We are humbled by the significance of your investment in the ACUE mission.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the ACUE Development Advisory Board. This dedicated group of volunteers has helped to significantly raise the profile of our urban elementary schools and has helped to keep the doors of our faith-based schools open as an important educational alternative for neighborhood children.

Next, I give my thanks to Advisory Board member, Tim Rawe, who graciously chaired the 2016-2017 ACUE Annual Fund. The primary purpose of the Annual Fund is to raise tuition assistance dollars to offset the more than $1.5 million in aid needed annually at the ACUE schools. Tim, a proud ACUE school alum, along with a dedicated team of 61 volunteers, raised yet another record amount for our schools and students. To give you a sense of the significance of their accomplishment, the Development Advisory Board's 2014 Strategic Plan set an aggressive goal to reach $1 million in annual contributions within five years. I congratulate Tim and his team in securing $1,045,000 in gifts and pledges and in doing so two years ahead of the five-year stretch-goal. Outstanding!

Due to the growth in the generosity of our donors, we are happy to say that the urban parishes had their weekly ACUE assessment reduced again. Their financial participation in the schools has been reduced by 25% over the last five years. It is our goal to see the assessment reduced further, but each reduction places greater emphasis on the annual fund for sustainability of our schools. With this said, please know how very much your support means to our schools and parishes, but especially to our students. With your assistance, we will continue to make a significant difference for urban children.

As the 2016-2017 school year came to a close, we wished Holy Cross Elementary principal, Ms. Mary Ellen Matts, all the best in her retirement. An educator for forty-two years, Ms. Matts served the Holy Cross Elementary community for fourteen years, twelve of those years as principal. Ms. Matts loved her school, students and staff, and it showed! We were very sorry to say good-bye, but her legacy to the school and community lives on.

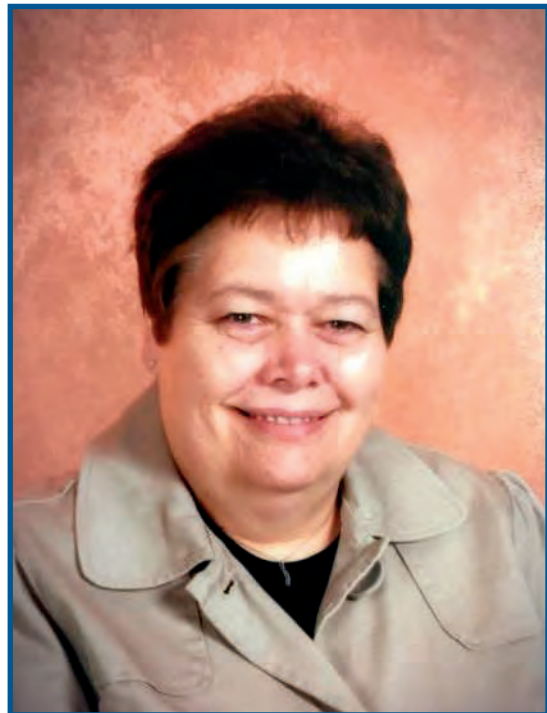

In July 2017, Holy Cross Elementary welcomed new principal, Mrs. Lisa Timmerding. Mrs. Timmerding is brimming with excitement for her new school and leadership assignment.

What She Meant to Us

For nearly 25 years, Diane Russell served as a teacher at Holy Family School located on 16th Street in Covington, the heart of the Austinburg community. Even during her tenure as principal (2011-2016), and for many years prior, she taught kindergarteners, a position perfectly suited to her as she was such a loving, patient presence in the classroom. As the longtime kindergarten teacher, nearly every student in the school, kindergarten through the eighth grade, was touched by her love for them.

The HFS staff received the unexpected, crushing news on the morning of October 31 that Diane had passed away earlier that day. It was Halloween, a day typically filled with fun and excitement for the students. For this reason, the teachers decided to keep the news from the children. Diane would have wanted it that way. When the students returned to school the next day, they were informed of the tremendous loss their community had experienced.

Diane Russell

Counselors from our Diocesan Catholic Charities were called to the campus to help the students process their loss and their grief. Students were comforted through the act of drawing and writing about their feelings. The longer they had been at the school, the more memories they had of Diane. Collectively, the students created a rosary and presented it to Dean Russell, Diane's husband.

The loss was felt throughout the Diocese. The other ACUE schools shared their condolences through oversized cards and posters signed by every student, teacher, principal and staff member. When asked by the parishes of St. Mary, Alexandria, and St. Joseph, Cold Spring, what they could do to help, the Holy Family teachers requested Holy Water fonts for each of their classrooms as a remembrance of Diane. We are told that even the non-Catholic children bless themselves with the Holy Water as they enter each room.

Diane was dearly loved, and her spirit is still with us. One little kindergartner from Holy Family School expressed this quite well. He asked the school's kindergarten assistant (who is also the dedicated school secretary), "Mrs. Norris, you told us that Jesus lives in our hearts, but then you said that Mrs. Russell went to live with Jesus. Does that mean that Mrs. Russell lives in our hearts now, too?" Mrs. Norris replied, "Why, yes! She certainly does." The little boy gave her a huge smile and then gently patted his chest.

Educational Choice in the Commonwealth

2018 Legislative Update

By Andrew Vandiver, Associate Director, Catholic Conference of Kentucky

Educational choice supporters entered the 2018 Session of the Kentucky General Assembly with the wind at their backs. Starting in January, thousands of Kentuckians contacted their legislators to express support for Scholarship Tax Credits.

Yet, the General Assembly did not pass Scholarship Tax Credit legislation or any other bills providing families with educational choice. The 2018 Scholarship Tax Credit bill would have created a $25 million program which would have incentivized charitable donations to local scholarship granting organizations. It was estimated that over 7,000 students would have received need-based tuition assistance through the program. By design, the majority of the beneficiaries of the program would have been students with special needs, students in the foster care system, or students from families whose income is below eligibility for reduced lunch.

Failure to move the bill was not due to lack of support for the program. Kentucky polling has consistently reflected that a bipartisan majority of Kentuckians support educational choice and Scholarship Tax Credits. Further, a majority of legislators in both chambers of the General Assembly committed to supporting the Scholarship Tax Credit bill.

So what happened? It is safe to say that the issue did not move because the General Assembly prioritized other matters and did not want to take on educational choice. Exhausted from fights over public pensions, tax reform and the budget, the General Assembly opted to kick the can down the road.

So where do we go from here?

ACUE parent, Luther Scruggs (second from right) testifies at the 2017 House Education Committee hearing on Educational Choice and Scholarship Tax Credits. Mr. Scruggs spoke to the importance of scholarships in making private education affordable for children with financial need. As each of his own children learns differently, he appreciates the need for school choice reform in helping Kentucky parents access the right-fit school for their children. Other members of the EdChoice Ky panel were, from left, Andrew Vandiver, Associate Director, Catholic Conference of Kentucky; public school teacher and House Education Committee Chair John "Bam" Carney, Campbellsville; Tom Troth, Legislative Agent, Kentucky Baptist Conference.

We must stay motivated. The battle for educational options has been fought and won in the majority of states, including nearly all of the states surrounding Kentucky. It can happen here. In fact, we have never been closer to passing a bill than we are now.

Victories in other states did not come easy and we should expect the same in Kentucky. The bias towards maintaining the status quo is strong. Nevertheless, the fight must continue because our children deserve the best educational opportunities possible.

Scholarship Tax Credits will pass if everyone who reads this takes ownership over the issue and demands immediate action from state lawmakers. We must persuade lawmakers that this is not simply a box that can be checked off at a later date. Educational choice must be a top priority now.

State lawmakers missed a major opportunity to improve the lives of thousands of children and the consequences of their failure to act are serious. The challenges facing families with children who are struggling academically cannot be put on pause while the General Assembly finds a more convenient time to address this issue. For many children, every year that passes without access to more options is a year that is lost with regard to their education.

Take the story of Denisha Merriweather as an example. Denisha received national attention over the last year due the radical change that happened in her life after she was given educational choice. Denisha was on the wrong track academically after failing third grade twice. Her life was changed forever after she was able to enroll in a non-public school that fit her needs through Florida's Scholarship Tax Credit program. She went on to become the first member of her family to graduate from high school and college.

How many Denisha's do we have in Kentucky schools today? These are children who would succeed if their families were only given the opportunity to find the right school. These are children who may be destined for a life of poverty unless they receive immediate help.

Denisha is not the only student who benefited from educational choice. The vast majority of research on educational choice reflects that students benefit across the board when families are given options, regardless of whether they choose a public or a nonpublic school. It is common sense. All children are unique and will have the best opportunity for success if they have access to the classroom that fits their learning needs.

Kentucky families do not have another year to spare. They need options now. This is the message that Kentucky lawmakers need to hear over and over again until they do the right thing and pass a robust Scholarship Tax Credit Program.

Ralph Drees

In addition to the wonderful support that ACUE has received over the years from Ralph and Irma Drees as Cornerstone donors, Judge Drees has also provided critical support for the EdChoice KY movement. Initially, he sponsored a December 2016 Metropolitan Club breakfast for NKY business leaders to help build awareness and support for Scholarship Tax Credit legislation. This legislation will enhance tuition assistance funds through private donations making a faith-based education more affordable for lower- and middle-income families. Judge Drees also participated in an EdChoice opinion piece with Bill Butler which appeared in both the Enquirer and the Business Courier. He then provided moral support for the issue through his attendance at the EdChoice legislative luncheon and Kentucky House Education Committee hearing in Frankfort in February 2017. Doing so required him to make a trip to the Commonwealth from his winter home in Florida.

We commend Judge and Mrs. Drees for their incredible support of Catholic education and thank them for being such important ambassadors for our ACUE schools and mission.

Joe Schmidt

Catholic education is a passion for Joe and Ginnie Schmidt. Three generations of the Schmidt family went to schools that are now part of ACUE. Joe and Ginnie feel strongly that the ACUE mission to provide a Catholic education to children in the urban areas should continue. They have been wonderful donors to ACUE through their donor-advised fund named, “Giving is Fun Fund”. Joe now uses qualified charitable deductions from his IRA to support ACUE.

“Above and Beyond” Award Certificate

After his retirement from IT, Joe became fascinated with the free tools available from Google. He developed a hobby of helping teachers via the Internet. At the outset of the 2016-2017 ACUE Leadership Appeal, Joe offered to assist our development efforts by building a mechanized tracking system for ACUE. After creating the program in late September 2016, our Google Doc guru continues to monitor the system and is always available whenever questions or new issues arise. In addition, he is always looking for ways to improve the program and simplify our processes. We cannot thank Joe enough for believing so deeply in the ACUE mission and for providing this important service to our organization. He has been a tremendous addition to the team and, of course, we thank Ginnie for her wonderful support as well!

Spring Donor Luncheon

To thank as many ACUE donors as possible for their kindness, an annual donor luncheon was initiated in 2017. Donors of $25 or more are invited to witness the fruits of their generosity and join ACUE students for lunch and a special program presented just for them. Our first annual luncheon, hosted by Holy Family School, Covington, took place on May 4. The Kentucky Derby themed event was spearheaded by principal, Beth Vieth, and dear ACUE volunteer, Kathy Danneman. Students decorated the walls of Emerick Hall and colored special placemats for their guests, all with a derby theme. A cold-lunch buffet was catered by McHale's and at each place, a beautiful derby cookie created and donated by Mary Miller served as both a dessert and a favor.

Seventh and eighth grade students were the school's ambassadors that day. They greeted guests as they arrived, escorted them to the Hall and, when lunch began, they sat among the donors so they could converse. During lunch, the program began with greetings from superintendent, Mike Clines, and principal, Ms. Vieth. The student performance followed with fifth and sixth grade students serving as emcees. First, the kindergarten and first graders starred in a darling fashion show featuring self-made derby hats. This was followed by derby songs sung by second, third and fourth graders with each song introduced by fifth or sixth grade students who had researched background on the composer and the composition. The program closed with the children asking everyone to stand and to join them in singing My Old Kentucky Home. Our event was made complete with a warm closing blessing from Bishop Foys.

2017 ACUE Donor Recognition Reception

ACUE's 2017 signature event to recognize contributions of $1,000 or more to the ministry was held on Tuesday, September 26. The event in honor of our 2016-2017 major donors was hosted at The Metropolitan Club's Roebling Room. The cocktail reception lasted but an hour, yet it was once again a lovely celebration filled with gratitude for our donors' generosity and support of the ACUE mission.

2017 Faith, Hope and Inspiration Award

The annual ACUE Faith, Hope and Inspiration Award honors the long-time, significant support of dedicated ACUE donors. Past recipients of the recognition are Ralph and Irma Drees, Bill and Sue Butler and the late R.C. Durr (posthumously). Each of the award recipients has greatly advanced the ministry of Catholic urban education.

At September's Major Donor Recognition Reception, ACUE was honored to recognize St. Elizabeth Healthcare with the 2017 ACUE FAITH, HOPE and INSPIRATION AWARD for its many significant contributions to the ministry. Since 2011, St. Elizabeth has provided both volunteer leadership and financial support to ACUE. For the 2015-2016 leadership appeal, with Garren Colvin as St. Elizabeth's new President and CEO, the healthcare system committed $50,000 to ACUE tuition assistance.

On behalf of St. Elizabeth Healthcare, President & CEO Garren Colvin accepts the Faith, Hope and Inspiration Award from Bishop Foy.

Acknowledging the importance of education to a child's long-term health and well-being and knowing the vital role of the ACUE schools in the urban communities, St. Elizabeth extended their support in the 2016-2017 appeal for an additional five years and $250,000. As head of the largest employer in our NKY community, we can imagine the number of requests for funding that must reach Mr. Colvin's desk. With that in mind, ACUE is all the more honored by St. Elizabeth's support.

Following the award presentation by Bishop Foys, Mr. Colvin stepped to the podium. "Our vision of becoming one of the healthiest communities in America involves more than quality medical care. It starts with providing a healthy, safe and nurturing environment for our youth."

Days before receiving the award on behalf of St. Elizabeth Healthcare, Mr. Colvin visited ACUE's Holy Family School in Covington. At the podium, he reflected upon his time with the students. "I spent but a precious few minutes at the school," Mr. Colvin shared, but he was struck by "the joy and the energy" there. "It was so meaningful to see those children blossoming. Whatever we can do to make a little difference in this world, is something special. I am slightly embarrassed for getting recognition for doing the right thing."

As one of the earliest, most generous and most consistent supporters of the ACUE ministry, St. Elizabeth Healthcare has not only made a commitment to economically disadvantaged urban students, providing them with the option of a quality, faith-based education and the hope for a brighter future, St. Elizabeth has also helped our Diocese to maintain its commitment to the urban areas. Mr. Colvin, we thank you, the trustees, administration, physicians and staff of St. Elizabeth Healthcare. The St. Elizabeth dedication to the quality of life in our northern Kentucky region inspires us all.

Paying Back

Not long ago, ACUE visited with a very special donor. The meeting concerned a gift in support of the school he, his siblings, and his children had attended. "I want to 'pay back' that gift, because in those days the school did not charge tuition. I want to help make a Catholic education more affordable for today's families. There were thirteen of us who attended school for free, so I would like to give $13,000 representing $1,000 for each of us." Our donor wishes to remain anonymous, but hopes his example will resonate with and inspire others.

In a closing note, his faith and Catholic education are so dear to him that he was deeply touched to learn of the ACUE parish where eight ACUE students and their three younger relatives (siblings/cousins) were baptized this year. Our kind donor recognizes the breadth of our ACUE mission to serve the urban community through our Catholic schools. He is very happy to support that mission and encourages others to do the same.

Estate Gift for ACUE Ministry

Once again, the Kemper Family has impacted the lives of our ACUE children in a deeply meaningful way.

In June 2016, upon the passing of Mr. Lawrence Kemper, formerly of Covington, we learned that ACUE was named as a beneficiary of his estate. ACUE had been very touched by his many years of thoughtful support during his lifetime and then particularly, his wish to benefit our students through his will.

In November 2016, ACUE was notified that Mr. Raymond Kemper, brother of Lawrence, had recently passed away leaving a bequest to St. Augustine School. Once again, we were moved by the significance of being remembered in our donor's estate. This honor is typically reserved for charities of the highest importance to a donor. To a charity, an estate gift is the ultimate endorsement of the organization's mission and is both humbling and overwhelming in its meaning.

May our kind and thoughtful benefactors, rest in eternal peace.

Would you like to join others in remembering ACUE in your will or estate plans?

It can be so easy to do – a simple bequest or codicil to your will may be all that is necessary. Please contact Beth Ruehlmann of the Diocesan Department of Catholic Schools for more information.

If you have already mentioned ACUE in your estate plans, please let us know so that we may express our gratitude during your lifetime for this significant act of support. Informing us of your intentions also allows us to confirm our ability to fulfill your wishes or any restrictions you might place on your gift.

Legacy donors have yet another tremendous impact on the ministry -- through their example, they influence others to consider their own legacy to this important work of the Diocese. Remembering ACUE in your will or estate plans will further your efforts to sustain Catholic education in our urban communities, and it will encourage others to do the same.

In Memory of...Bill Rehtin

In early August 2014, Ray and Darlene Rehtin listened thoughtfully to the summer mission presentation at Immaculate Heart of Mary's 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. The presenter spoke about our ACUE schools and the ACUE mission of bringing Christ to the children of the urban core through a quality Catholic education, one that most ACUE families struggle to afford. A second collection took place at the end of Mass to benefit ACUE tuition assistance.

Just days before the ACUE mission talk, Ray and Darlene received the heartbreaking news that their youngest son had been killed in a Miami, Florida house fire. Following Mass, the Rehtins determined that memorial gifts for their son should be directed to ACUE in the form of tuition assistance and school supplies.

William (Bill) Rehtin proudly served in Iraq as a member of the Army National Guard. While at home on leave, his parents asked what he would like in his care packages. "Nothing for me, particularly, not food.

We get plenty of food," was his response. He then looked away momentarily and said something no one understood. The words were Arabic for paper and pencils, something the Iraqi children would request of the American GIs. "If you are going to send me anything, send me paper and pencils." So that is what his parents did.

One of the few photos Ray and Darlene have from their son's time in Iraq features Bill with two Iraqi boys. The photo is a treasure. Bill's sergeant wrote to Ray and Darlene, "You are right about Bill and the kids.

Every time we went out on patrol, we would find a safe spot and the kids would gather. Bill would be the first out to be with them. He was a gentle giant around them, and you could tell he cared very much. There were a couple of times I remember going to the PX and seeing him get supplies and candy for the kids.”

As Ray states, “In the midst of war with all its violence, Bill brought a little love to children he never knew. All of us have that opportunity if not in a war zone, in [the inner-cities] where [for many children] there is little hope. Let’s all offer a little hope by making just a little contribution for ‘Bill’s Kids’.”

Bill’s Kids completed its fourth anniversary “back-to-school” school supply and tuition assistance collection for ACUE last summer. The Rechtins partnered with fellow IHM parishioner, Amy Ritchie, to organize and oversee the drive which they hold at their parish each year. With each collection, several of our ACUE schools benefit. Supplies that our most disadvantaged ACUE families cannot afford to purchase for their children are often then purchased personally by the teachers (this is not part of their budget), so the supplies collected by the Rechtins help not only the students and families, they help the teachers, too. The contributions to tuition assistance, the greatest need at our ACUE schools, have been a wonderful added benefit of the Bill’s Kids program. The ACUE schools and students are extremely grateful to the Rechtins and IHM parish for remembering Bill in this very poignant, impactful way.

Richard and Rosalie Hentz's 50th Anniversary

In honor of...Dick and Rosalie Hentz

Dick and Rosalie Hentz and their family have been involved for a number of years in providing technology equipment to students at Holy Trinity Junior High. It therefore seemed natural for Dick and Rosalie to suggest that those wishing to honor their fiftieth wedding celebration in June 2017, make contributions to this endeavor in lieu of gifts to them personally.

Dick and Rosalie have a long affiliation with Catholic education having both grown up attending Catholic schools here in our Diocese. Dick attended St. Thomas grade school in Fort Thomas and Rosalie attended St. Stephen School, Newport, now known as ACUE's Holy Trinity School. Rosalie then went on to St. Thomas High School while Dick crossed the river to attend St. Xavier High followed by XU for his undergraduate studies. Rosalie continued her diocesan education at St. Elizabeth School of Nursing.

Dick & Rosalie visit Holy Family School.

The Hentzes relocated throughout the country during their marriage, first to Athens, Ohio, for Dick's doctorate in physics at Ohio University followed by a number of moves related to his employment. During that time, they were blessed with three wonderful sons: Joe, Jeff and John. Their sons are all now married with children of their own -- eight beautiful grandchildren for Dick and Rosalie.

The couple returned to Northern Kentucky twelve years ago. They are delighted to be home again!

ACUE was very touched to be a beneficiary of tributes in honor of Dick and Rosalie's momentous occasion. We thank them for their thoughtfulness and wish them many blessings now and in the years to come!

In Memoriam

Tom Franxman

Our friend and longtime volunteer solicitor for the ACUE Leadership Appeal, passed away suddenly in December 2016. We fondly remember Tom, his great sense of humor and his wonderful dedication to our mission. He is missed! Our thoughts and prayers continue for his dear family, and for Tom.

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace.*

We made every attempt to ensure the accuracy of the donor listing in this 2016-2017 Annual Report and offer our sincere apologies for any errors or omissions. Please bring corrections to the attention of Joy Bricking, ACUE Database Coordinator, at jbricking@covdio.org or (859) 392-1500 ext. 1593
